State Court Litigation

Our attorneys represent clients at both the trial and appellate levels in the courts of Maryland and the District of Columbia. We also represent clients in a vast array of administrative agency hearings, as well as in administrative appeals, in Maryland.

Federal Court Litigation

O'Malley, Miles, Nylén & Gilmore, P.A.'s Calverton office is located just minutes from the U.S. Courthouse in Greenbelt and provides easy access for the Firm's well-established federal practice in that court. Our litigators represent clients in the trial and appellate federal courts for the State of Maryland and the District of Columbia, including the bankruptcy courts. In addition to representing our own clients in the federal courts, our litigators are often called upon to serve as local counsel for out-of-state firms and clients involved in federal cases. Our attorneys' experience and familiarity with the federal system and the local rules make these partnerships extremely advantageous to out-of-state clients and practitioners.

Real Estate-Related Litigation

The Litigation Practice Group attorneys have experience in many types of real estate-related litigation, including sales contract and title disputes, land use and zoning disputes, broker commission disputes, foreclosures, bankruptcy lift-stays, condemnation cases, tax assessment appeals, mechanic's liens, environmental claims, and title insurance claims.

Bank and Lender Litigation

O'Malley, Miles, Nylén & Gilmore, P.A. represents banks and other institutional lenders, and some borrowers, in a wide variety of loan-related matters, including foreclosures, receiverships, bankruptcies, confessed judgments, forbearance agreements, and workouts.

Of particular note in the area of employment discrimination is the landmark case of Meritor Savings Bank, F.S.B. v. Vinson, 477 U.S. 57 (1986), argued before the United States Supreme Court in 1986 by F. Robert Troll, Jr. This case is significant not only for the successful result obtained for the client, but also because at the time it was the first sexual harassment case to come before the United States Supreme Court.

Divorce and Domestic Relations

Our attorneys are experienced in providing representation in connection with domestic relations matters in the State of Maryland. Our representation includes handling both simple matters such as uncontested divorces and complex matters such as custody disputes and property distribution issues involving substantial assets.

Will and Estate Litigation

We represent our clients in a variety of probate matters including will and estate litigation in the courts of Maryland and the District of Columbia.

Plaintiff's Personal Injury Litigation

Our attorneys represent individuals injured by the wrongful conduct of others, including personal injuries caused by automobile accidents, dangerous premises, and unsatisfactory medical or other professional services.
